

If OIEG cannot make this assessment from the information in the application form, further information will be requested. If the applicant does not reply to repeated requests for further information, the applicant will be classified as an overseas fee payer. The applicant will be notified of this decision at the point of offer. If the applicant decides to accept the offer on the basis of the assessed fee this can be amended back to a Home fee status if the applicant is able to demonstrate meeting the appropriate eligibility criteria prior to enrolment on the course.

Tuition fee status is determined by OIEG and the relevant University partner using guidelines provided by the UK Council for International Students Affairs (UKCISA). Fee status is allocated at the discretion of each individual University and there may be occasions when other parties (e.g. the Student Loans Company) will undertake an independent assessment of fee status for eligibility for their loan or funding etc. and this may differ from the status determined by the
